THE CLASS OF

1952

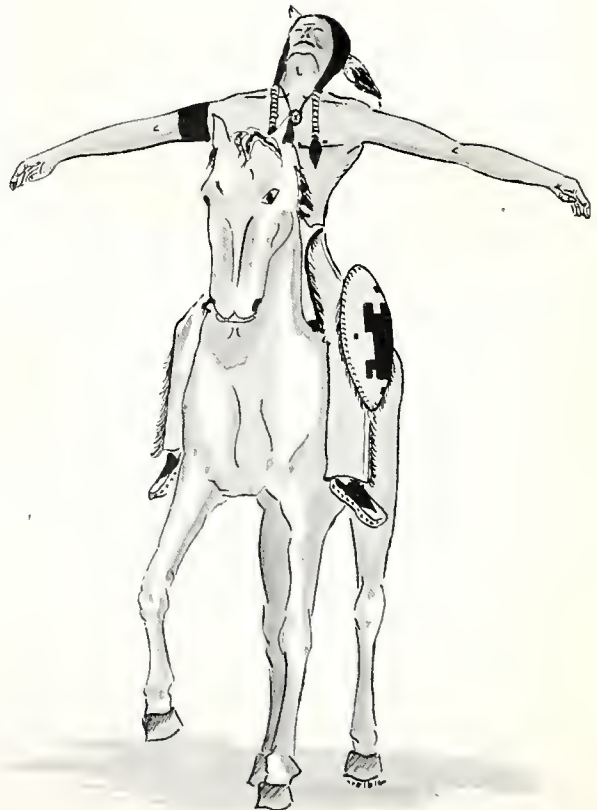

PRESENTS

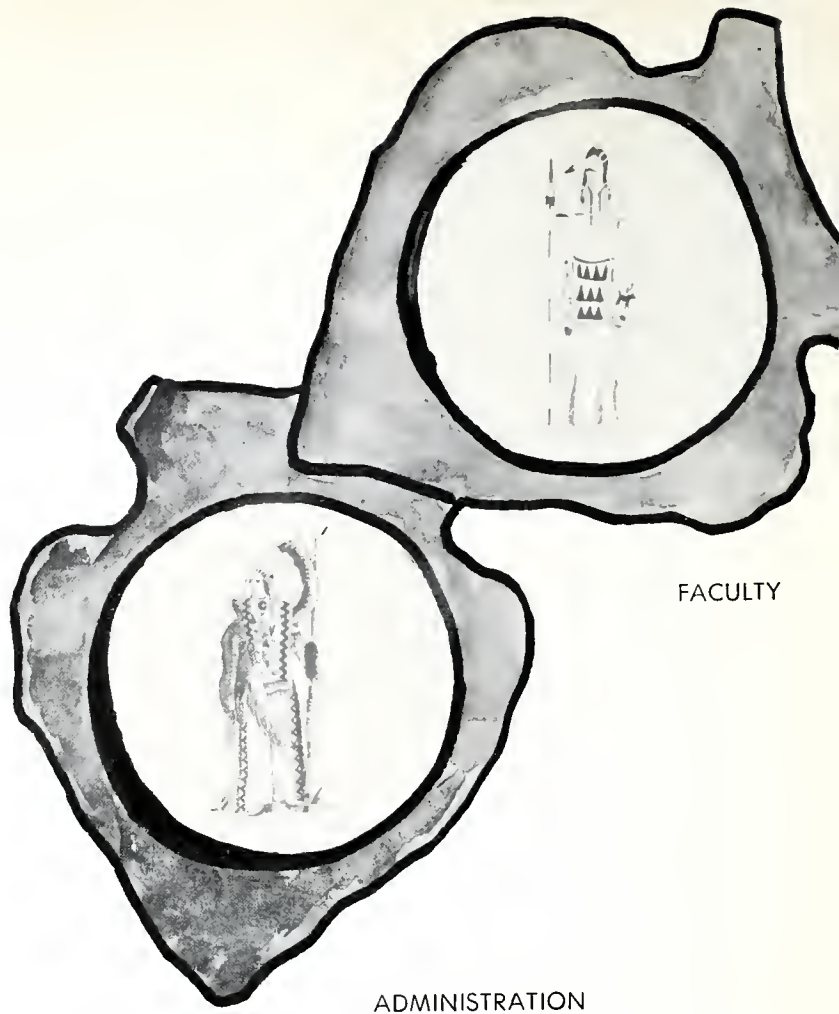

THE 1952 ZENITH

WEEHAWKEN
HIGH SCHOOL
WEEHAWKEN, N. J.

FOREWORD

Since memory permits us to pass through the looking glass of time, we can view the golden reflections of high school days and always hold to our hearts those precious years of warm friendship, cooperation, and achievement. Each of us has threaded his own way, but we have been woven together by an intangible spirit, grown and nurtured by our loyalty and devotion. This spirit has been captured forever in a rich tapestry of past experience. The staff has endeavored to give life to its colorful narrative through Indian symbols, which lend historic, as well as imaginative perspective. We hope we have succeeded in sounding the theme which will recall to mind three pleasant and profitable years at Weehawken.

We, the Class of 1952, are honored to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Raymond L. Hopkins. As the business adviser to the Zenith, he has worked diligently and unceasingly to make our annual a success, and we sincerely thank him for all his assistance.

DEDICATION . . .

ALMA MATER

High o'er the Hudson, stands our Alma Mater,
Dauntless in spirit and stately in form,
Emblem of culture gladly we hail thee,
Our guide and protector in sunshine and storm.
All hail Alma Mater, glad voices we raise
In loyal devotion to sing thee our praise.
Onward and upward, o'er varied pathways
We have been lead by thy unceasing care,
Through thy devotion we have gained wisdom,
Wisdom and courage to do and to dare.
All hail Alma Mater, glad voices we raise
In loyal devotion to sing thee our praise.

PRINCIPAL

GEORGE BECKER, M.A.

This fine yearbook represents one of many achievements during three of the most fruitful and glorious years of your lives. High school days cannot be repeated but their happy memories are forever lived and relived. Your class, though relatively small in number, is rich in quality and attainment. Your high educational accomplishments are clearly indicated by the many who have consistently gained "Honor Roll" recognition. Your enthusiastic group cooperation in all matters proves, beyond any doubt, your fine sense of loyalty and appreciation. I regard it a pleasure and a privilege to have been associated with you during the past three years. Beyond wishing you each individual success and happiness, I want you to know that I am confident of your ultimate and worthwhile contribution to your community and country. Good luck, good health, and may God bless you!

"SUBJECT MATTER"

With admiration to the chiefs of our tribe,
This verse we squaws and braves inscribe.
Here's our salute to you worthy profs,
Who have guided us since we were sophs.

With lessons in history and current news,
We learned to think clearly, developing views.

Our reading tastes changed from comics to sonnets,
Which added a feather to our Indian bonnets.

Our musical activities and contact with art,
Contributed culture, a most vital part.

With German, Spanish, Latin, and French,
Our thirst for languages we did quench.

Hamsters and reptiles filled us with thrills,
Our pockets were emptied by mammoth lab bills.

Too many cooks don't spoil the meal,
For we mixed it and stirred it and ate it with zeal.

We recall typing keys that would usually stick,
In steno we scribbled and hoped we might click.

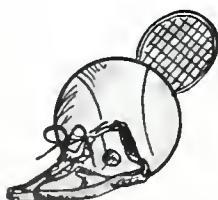

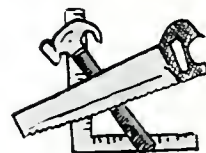

The physical ed. classes known better as gym,
Produced stalwart braves and squaws sleek and slim.

We probed into cosine, the circle, square root,
And discovered the frequent trig quizzes to boot!

We drew many a blueprint in mechanical drawing,
And in shop we did plenty of planning and sawing.

With your guidance we have matured,
Our direction in life has been insured.
We are sincere in appreciation,
For your part in our education.

THE INDIANS

"Welcome aboard!"

The Admiral and the First Mate!

Main course.

The Class of 1952 added the Senior Prom to its long list of phenomenal successes. Using the theme of a flagship, this year's prom sailed to unprecedented fame and glory with Commodore Beisswanger and First Mate Chasmar leading a top notch crew consisting of the entire Senior Class. From 9 P.M. to 2 A.M., the S. S. Weehawken, anchored securely in the gym, brought its passengers a delicious buffet dinner, a gala array of professional entertainers, and masterful music from a fine dance band.

But how was all this accomplished? The simple facts show diligent work on the part of the class to be the primary factor. This energetic group made it possible to allot over a thousand dollars to insure the Prom's success. These funds were augmented by The Board of Education who co-operated fully in producing an A-1 affair.

by the faculty. The Student Board conferred with the regular Board of Education and made recommendations for improvements in the school. All participants of Student Day were given a luncheon prepared by several members of the regular faculty. The project gave these students an opportunity in leadership and cooperation and a keen insight into the problems and procedures of the field of education.

YOUNG AND GAY

"Gadzooks! She's fainted!"

Backstage Crew

Wardrobe Committee

Weehawken's future thespians made the most of their opportunity to get behind grease-paint and behind the scenes the night of their smash hit "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

The opening night audience broke the all-time attendance record for a Senior Play. The cast and the audience had an additional thrill when a good luck telegram from author Cornelia Otis Skinner arrived.

The three-act hilarity hit follows the adventures and misadventures of Miss Skinner and co-author Emily Kimbrough on their trip abroad.

Here is the recipe for the successful production: put a laugh provoking plot into a gay 1923 setting, add a pinch of Weehawken stardust plus an almost professional behind-the-scenes crew. Add Miss Honiss, our own Margaret Webster, to whom so much to the credit is due. The result, a top-notch comedy.

Certainly none of us will forget that night "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

A BALLAD FOR SENIORS

It was way out West on the praries flat
That Jess his guitar was strummin',
While thinking of his old home town
A ballad he started hummin'.

"If you'll gather round me children
A story I will tell
About an eastern Injun,
Weehawken knew him well.

"It was on the corner of Liberty,
In September, '49,
When little Eager Beaver
The stairs of school did climb.

"Big Chief Becker approached him
In manner nice and gay,
Then shouted to Big Chief Chase,
'How're the Red Sox doing today?'

"Eager Beaver filled out a schedule card
And hit his books with zest,
He wanted an education
So he did his very best.

"Then he took to tennis and soccer
And made the varsity team,
With typical Indian spirit
He played with skill and steam.

"Eager Beaver found a welcome
From locker room to band.
He made himself well known and liked
By giving a helping hand.

"Eager Beaver loved Weehawken
He felt at home everywhere
'Specially near the teachers room
Where smoke signals filled the air.

"There's not an underclassman
Who often does not express
That Eager's achievements were many,
That he reached the zenith of success.

"In his sophomore year as an exec
Eager Beaver worked on the Hop
And proved that even beginners
Can often hit the top.

"Injun, Jr. was a business whiz
Selling stationery to all
So they put his picture on the ring
Which was standardized that fall.

"Now Eager Beaver was growing up
His date book was overflowing
So he cooked up a fancy Social
With his dream squaw, he was going.

"As a senior Beaver's ego grew
And so did his agenda,
With Christmas cards and magazines
He was a top notch vendor.

"I've heard it said that Beaver
Made an audience shout 'Hooray!'
When he took the comic lead
In 'Our Hearts Were Young and Gay.'

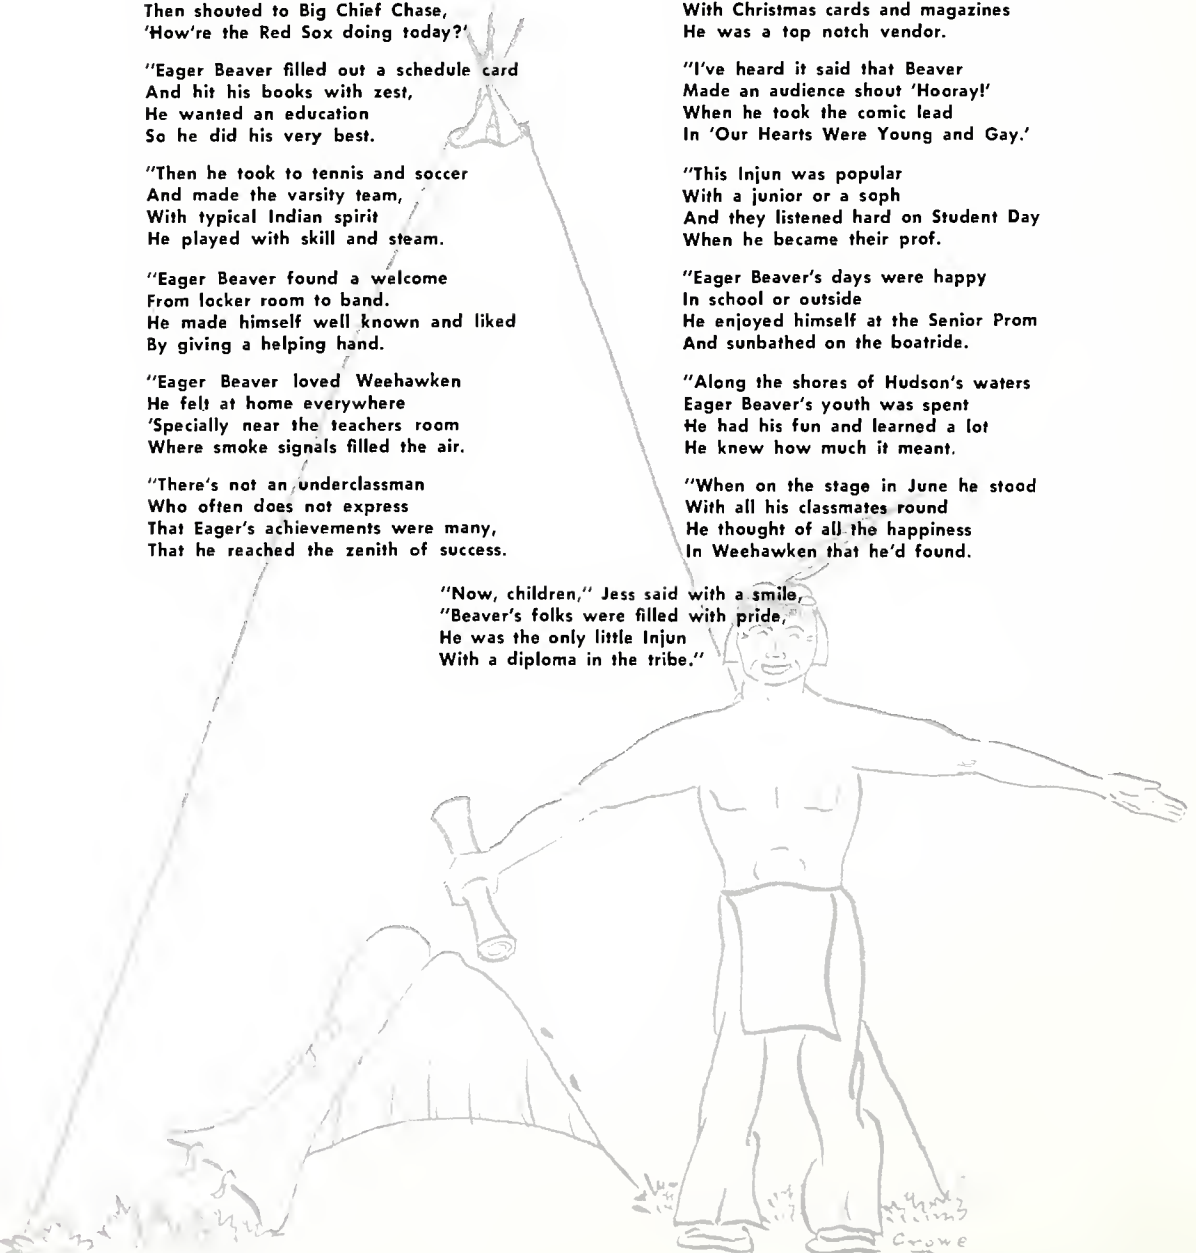

"This Injun was popular
With a junior or a soph
And they listened hard on Student Day
When he became their prof.

"Eager Beaver's days were happy
In school or outside
He enjoyed himself at the Senior Prom
And sunbathed on the boatride.

"Along the shores of Hudson's waters
Eager Beaver's youth was spent
He had his fun and learned a lot
He knew how much it meant.

"When on the stage in June he stood
With all his classmates round
He thought of all the happiness
In Weehawken that he'd found.

"Now, children," Jess said with a smile,
"Beaver's folks were filled with pride,
He was the only little Injun
With a diploma in the tribe."

Best of luck happening in the year to come to a swell and libale, gyt.

UNDERCLASSMEN

CLASS OF 1953

The members of the Class of 1953, now at the halfway mark in their high school career, have proved to be successful in all of their endeavors. A profitable dance, the sale of Weehawken hats, and the Junior Social, were included in their many activities. Under the capable guidance of Miss Beller, they have maintained the true Weehawken spirit and now aspire to be seniors worthy of the title.

CLASS OF 1954

The Class of 1954, which has had the distinction of being the largest student group in Weehawken High, enjoyed the rewards of success in each of its undertakings. Under the able guidance of Mr. Stubbs, these capable sophomores have made substantial gains from the Sophomore Hop held during the Fall semester. In addition, the class launched a profitable drive for the collection of pencils for Palestine. We feel certain that this group will make their mark in the future and convey a deep sense of pride to Weehawken.

United States Congress . . . WHS Student Council . . . essentially they are the same. Although Council does not attack weighty national problems, it is indispensable as far as Weehawken students are concerned.

Each year, Council fulfills a variety of worthwhile projects. At the beginning of the year a Red Cross drive was held. The Christmas seals and the familiar buttons and bangles appeared to mark the T.B. drive. The sale of bus tickets has been resumed this year as in the past.

Council representatives were delegated to the New Jersey Student Council Convention at Rutgers. This year a regular council meeting was conducted on stage to serve a dual purpose: (1) to show Council in action; (2) to report convention news.

The adoption of a war orphan was financed by a benefit talent show. Then Student Day, with its opportunities for individual leadership and group cooperation, arrived under Council's auspices.

With Mr. Miller, "Speaker of the House", these junior lawmakers are creating a more democratic, more up-to-date WHS.

STUDENT PRINTS

"You make the news; we print it" is the by-word of the editorial staff of the Student Prints under the guiding hand of Mrs. Oppenheim. Editor-in-Chief, Signe Jonsson, and her competent staff have sparked interest in their publication by bringing the readers timely news features, cartoons, sports articles, and editorials designed for their interest.

The business staff, administrated by Lillian Von Hagen, has worked assiduously in procuring advertisements and has distributed the "Prints" to enthusiastic patrons. The Student Prints is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and previously had been awarded first place rating, as well as the medalist award.

TECHNICIANS COMMITTEE

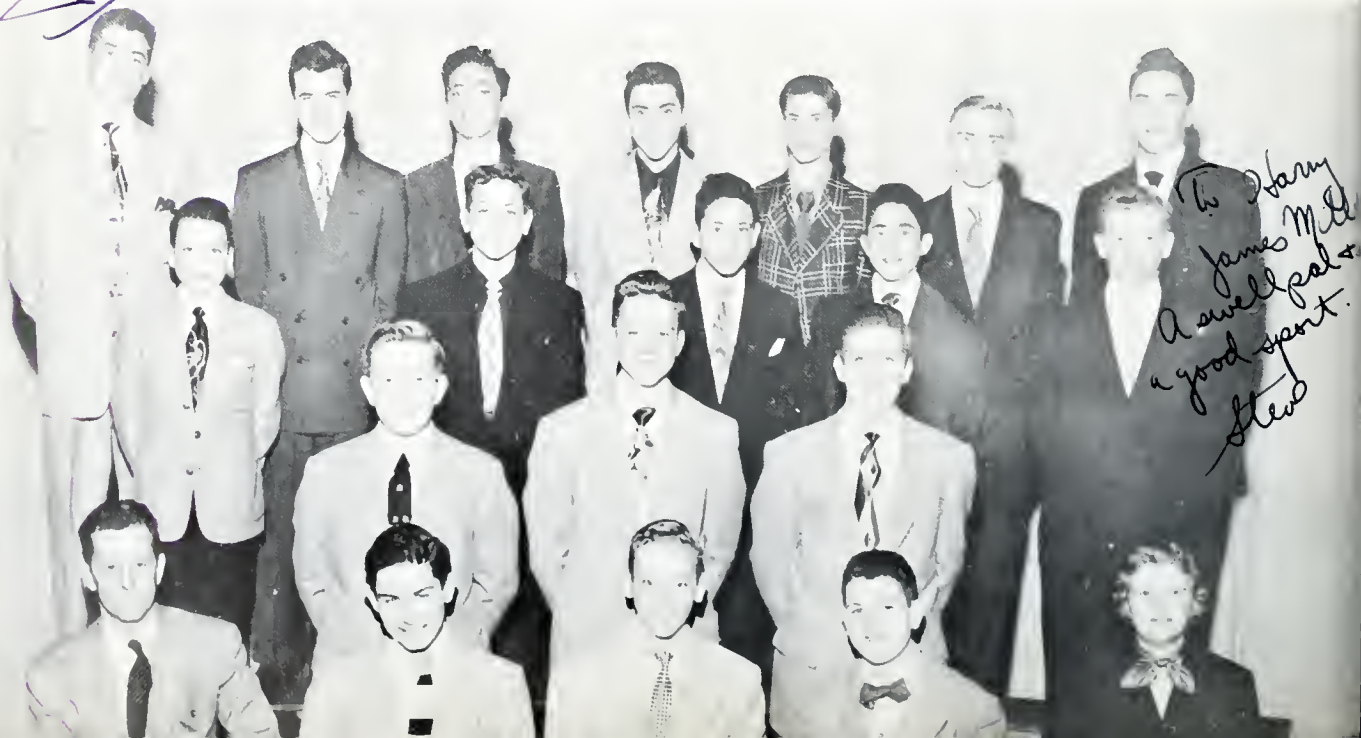

OFFICERS

The major objective of the Technicians Committee is to offer assistance in the use of various school equipment. Its services include providing the music for our dances, helping at our basketball games, assisting at the Class Play and at all assemblies. The Technicians also sponsor noon-time movies for the students' enjoyment.

The organization consists of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior boys who show the initiative and willingness to cooperate in these various affairs. Through the concerted efforts of the Technicians advised by Miss McFadden and Mr. Henry, our school functions have been successfully carried out.

"Up stairway five, turn right, and it's the second classroom on your right." These words, heard during the opening days of the school year, were uttered by none other than our "Corridor Cops," the Traffic Committee.

This year, a new administrative system was initiated. The committee is now headed by six squad leaders who rotate captaincy for a period of six weeks each. Another first initiated by this year's organization was the purchasing of grey sports jackets for each of its members. In addition to these new improvements, they continued their standard services of selling milk, patrolling corridors, assisting in fire drills, and beautifying the school by planting flowers.

During the spring, members of the committee were rewarded for their service by attending a major league ball game. Certainly none can deny that the Traffic Committee, under the direction of Mr. Strukel, is one of our school's top-flight organizations.

Books are their business! And whether it's research on three-legged grasshoppers or locating information in the card catalog, these literary ladies who constitute the Library Council are always on hand to assist you.

The scope of their responsibilities includes the preparation, circulation, and arrangement of a wide variety of publications. The locating of special material and desired literature for those students unfamiliar with library procedure is another facet of their work.

This service organization, with Miss Roelker as adviser, should certainly win a place of honor on our "best seller" list.

"May I help you?" is a familiar saying of the Hostesses. These junior and senior girls are always ready to be of assistance in ushering at school functions, directing visitors, carrying messages, and rendering other services to the school.

In order to become a member of this organization, which is supervised by Mrs. Welland, these receptionists volunteer two study periods each week. The club terminated the year's activities by attending a New York show.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a new club under the able supervision of Miss Montagne.

The activities that were started this year included a placement bureau which helped students find jobs upon graduation. Members of this organization also aided other clubs of the school by offering secretarial help when needed. Successful commercial students owe a great deal to the F.B.L.A. which has given them an insight into business affairs.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKSHOP

The Jr. Red Cross Workshop is the link between Weehawken High School and the American Red Cross. They contribute to the international correspondence project as well as provide small gifts at Christmas and Easter for those in our local hospitals, orphanages, and homes for the aged. In this way students add to international understanding and participate in community service. The members, ably guided by Miss Arlinghaus, need no reward other than knowing that they have made life a little more pleasant for those less fortunate than themselves.

MIXED CHORUS

"Of Thee We Sing!"

"There's Music in the Air" and that is a good forecast of conditions in the Music Room. This harmonious group of sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses exercise their vocal chords every Wednesday afternoon in preparation for numerous school functions.

The familiar carols which symbolize the Christmas season were again brought to the student body through the efforts of the Mixed Chorus. Appropriate selections were presented by the chorus at the important assemblies.

The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Rossman, has given the student body many joyous hours of entertainment.

ORCHESTRA

"Sound off!"

The Weehawken High School Orchestra enables the musically talented students of the school to gain experience in an ensemble. Under the baton of Mr. Rossman, the group sets the tempo at assembly programs and at various other school and civic functions. In order to develop an appropriate repertoire for these occasions, the orchestra rehearses every Monday afternoon.

This past year, besides playing at the assemblies, the orchestra performed for Baccalaureate and Commencement. The students are rewarded for their service with a letter in their junior year and a key and certificate during their senior years.

Spinning batons, red and black uniforms! The practice required of each girl is exacting, but their enthusiasm and diligence result in colorful and enjoyable routines.

BAND

The Weehawken High School Band, a dual purpose organization, has well earned its niche in our school life. Under the direction of Mr. Brown, the group performed as either a concert or marching band. Resplendent in their red and black uniforms, they entertained at basketball games and paraded throughout the year. The concert band appeared at certain important school and civic functions and climaxed its year's work at the annual Spring Music Festival.

The band rehearsed twice a week during the school year. Band members received a letter during their junior year and a key during their senior year.

BOWLING CLUB

First a strike, then a spare, and then a split . . . and so it goes every Thursday afternoon at the Union Palace Bowling Alleys where neither a 200 game or a 20 game is uncommon.

The Bowling Club introduces its members to a game which they will enjoy for many years; a game that stresses skill and control rather than speed and strength. By diligently following the instructions of Mr. Ferris, their adviser, some have approached the point where they can be compared favorably with skilled bowlers in organized leagues.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

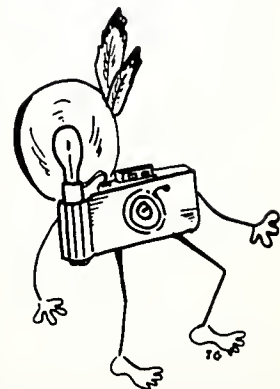

The function of the Photography Club is to teach enthusiastic shutterbugs various phases of photography: darkroom technique, methods of taking better pictures, and other technical aspects of the subject.

The members, under the tutelage of Mr. Sarafian, benefited from his extensive knowledge of "camera clicking." This year they publicized numerous school functions and developed their photographic skills on a local field trip.

BURTON SHELLEY DEBATING SOCIETY

"Resolved: That All Americans Should Be Subject to Conscription for Essential Service in Time of War." This was the national debating topic for all interscholastic debating competition.

This year's debating society, aided by Mr. Henry, has made great strides in the forensic art. The society debated Passaic, Sweeney, Union Hill, and Memorial High Schools in addition to participating in a tournament held at Passaic. Activities of the organization were supplemented by selling pep cards during the basketball season.

As has been the custom in previous years, the Society presented the Burton Shelley Memorial Award at graduation exercises to the senior who showed the greatest promise in the art of democratic living.

BLOCK LETTER CLUB

The Block Letter Club, led by Mr. Billingham, is composed of juniors and seniors who have earned a letter by participating in one or more varsity sports. This year the club sponsored a dance and attended a professional baseball game.

Each June at the Awards Assembly the members present a trophy to the outstanding athlete of the year. In addition, all senior members of the organization are awarded keys in recognition of their athletic achievements.

SIGMA GAMMA CHI

Sigma Gamma Chi, an organization exclusively for senior girls, is currently celebrating its tenth birthday. Through the activities of this group the members are bettering themselves both socially and fashionably.

At Yuletide, the girls demonstrated the true Christmas spirit by collecting and distributing gifts to a local orphanage. In addition, Christmas cards were delivered to the Cerebral Palsy League.

Sigma Gamma Chi, under the guidance of Miss MacArdle, has truly won the admiration of the entire student body.

CHESS CLUB

"Checkmate," a word originating from the Persian "shah-mat" meaning "the king is dead", signifies the end of another chess game. Whether it's running the gambit, en passant, or castling, the members of the chess group meet the challenge with logic, logistics, and mental dexterity.

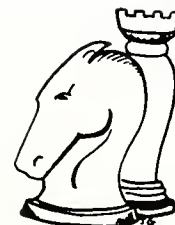

This year the newly organized club entered a team in an interscholastic league, competing against Demarest, Memorial, and Sweeney High Schools for the Paul Helbig Trophy. The chess team, ably directed by Mr. Fox, is composed of five players and one alternate. Despite its inexperience, the team was able to finish in third place and is anticipating greater success in future competition.

"There's No Business Like Show Business" is the byword of the Mask and Wig Club, whose activities are the writing and producing of plays and also the instructing of its members in the fundamentals of stage craft. This year's organization was composed of two different groups: one made up of seniors and juniors, and the other consisting entirely of sophomores.

In order to obtain sufficient capital, the members sold the popular Weehawken book covers and also sponsored a successful dance. The Washington Day assembly highlighted the program of this successful group which is under the experienced guidance of Miss Honiss.

SPANISH CLUB

"South of the Border" signifies FL 1 as far as Weehawkenites are concerned. For through informal but informative meetings, Spanish students become better acquainted, not only with the Spanish language, but also with the fascinating culture of the people.

In order to accomplish the many items on their agenda, these ambitious Spaniards sponsored the sale of basketball pencils. The members of the organization enjoyed the colorful and authentic dancing of Jose Greco's Spanish Ballet Corps. Dining at a Mexican and Spanish restaurant provided them with exotic cuisine, guitar music, and a wonderful opportunity to apply a newly acquired knowledge of the language.

This active organization, under the guidance of Senora Reisch, has done much throughout the year to promote better understanding through frequent correspondence between the Latin American Nations and the United States.

The members are exposed to French culture, thereby gaining a better understanding of the people and their language. Attending a French movie and opera helped to accomplish their aims. Miss Gulick's extensive travels throughout France enable her to guide the club towards its worthy objectives.

This year the Senior Dance Club, guided by Mrs. Schlichting, devoted alternate meetings to individual instruction and group dancing. Those who acted as teachers gained new friends as well as valuable experience in improving their dance steps. The purpose of this club is to enlarge the turnout at various school dances and most of all, at the Senior Prom.

Those who are unfamiliar with the latest dance steps can also be found at the "pow-wow". Student teachers are available for instruction while the more advanced dancers perfect their fox trots and rumbas. By acquiring social poise, these Juniors are overcoming an obstacle which plagues many adults.

The word "Teens" has a special significance to Weehawken High School students for it refers to a group of highly talented girls with very pleasant voices and good sense of musical style. The Teens have appeared at various programs throughout the school year. Especially remembered was the Teens assembly program Christmas card: "T'was the Night Before Christmas". They are a complete unit and come equipped with piano and capable accompanist — a most professional touch.

WHS DANCE BAND

Louis Armstrong . . . Gene Krupa . . . Benny Goodman . . . these names symbolize the finest in jazz. Following this popular trend toward Music Americana, a group of Weehawken High School students led by Mr. Brown and Bob Leive, have organized a dance band. The top tunes are treated royally by this combo which makes its headquarters in the Music Room.

Throughout the school year, several organizations were fortunate enough to engage this "live music" for their respective dances.

Although this marks the first appearance of a full time dance band here at Weehawken, this outfit is certain to become a permanent feature of school life.

Recapitulation: Won -- 6; Lost -- 12.

The high spot of the evening!

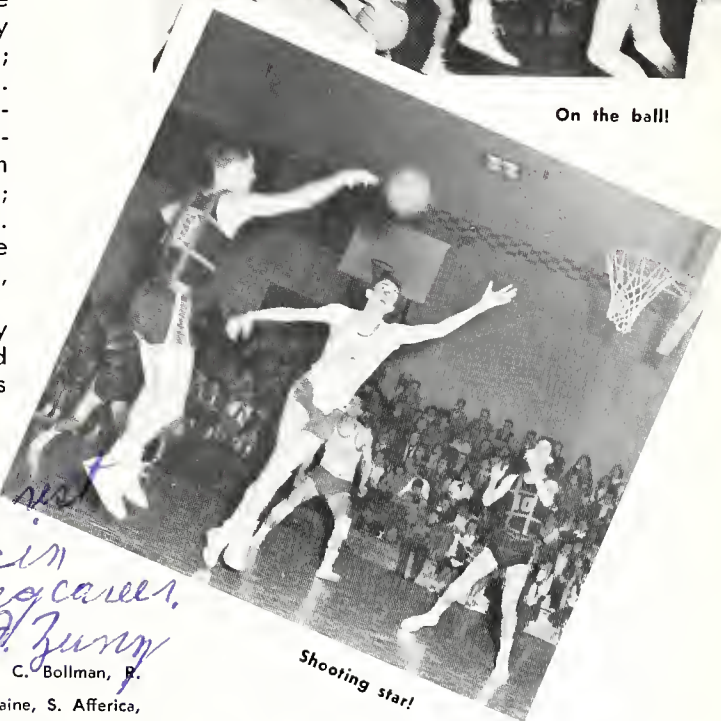

Coach Les Purvere's cagers this year compiled a six won, twelve lost record. The team was led by Henry Gurski, Steve Madreperla and Don Auletto. Gurski, a jump-shot artist, garnered 194 points and 37 assists at forward, while Steve Madreperla contributed over 200 points from the pivot position with an assortment of hooks and jump shots. Although bothered by injuries late in the year, left forward Don Auletto did more than his share in point production. Our reserve forwards were Joe Puglisi and Bob Hilferty. Our evenly matched guards were Barry Gordon, a set shot artist and ball handler; lanky Walt Forrester and Henry Drury, both rugged rebounders; and "Bubby" Klein, whose beautiful lay-ups amazed us all.

Our Junior Varsity, who deserves all the praise possible, finished with a sterling fourteen won, four lost record, one of the finest ever compiled by our J.V.'s. Much credit goes to high scorers Ronald Gorman, 251 points; Arnold Zunz, 233 points; and Charlie Cavidini, 137 points. Helping greatly in producing a successful season were Joe Pesciotta, Steve Afferica, Ken Johnson, Bob Wieboldt, Bob Graham, Karl Bollman, and Bob St. Germaine.

As we seniors leave W.H.S. we may look back to many enjoyable evenings spent at the gym, and look forward to a winning performance from our returning regulars and successful Jayvees, who will join them.

On the ball!

CHEERLEADERS

"On to victory, we're going to cheer Weehawken High," is the theme of our cheerleaders, who are the guiding light of our school spirit. These eight girls, adept at a multiplicity of gymnastics from cartwheels to flips, have boosted morale at many a basketball game. With a view to the future, next year's squad should carry on as ably as the enthusiastic, vivacious circle of this year's cheerleaders.

TENNIS

Tennis is recognized as one of our finest sports, and one in which we have found much success. With the arrival of this year's season, our netmen took their rackets out of "mothballs" and looked forward to what promised to be a very successful campaign. Coach Beisswanger's hopes for this year were bolstered by the return of seven members of last year's squad headed by seniors Fred Buoni, Dick and Bob Steinfeld, and Ed Geiges and juniors Peter Schan, Julius Eisen, and Larry Segedin.

This year's team, anticipating another North Hudson County Division Championship, was also hopeful of becoming county champs, a goal which has eluded their grasp in the past few years. Whether it be on clay or asphalt courts, we may be certain that these netsters tried their hardest to bring victory to Weehawken.

Our soccer team with a fine seven won, two lost, two tied record brought back the State Soccer Championship to Weehawken for the first time since 1936, and placed Barry Gordon, stellar halfback, on the first string All-State Team. It is notable that we outscored our opponents, twenty-six goals to fifteen, and were shut out only once, while shutting out the opposition on four occasions.

Our fine defense was spear-headed by goalie John Looney, who let in an average of 1.2 goals per game. He was capably assisted by Don Auletto, fullback, and Barry Gordon, Donald Rickert, Phil Yturbe and Tony Trifoglio, halfbacks. Our forward line, which produced 26 goals (Jimmy Kosinski with 9; Henry Gurski with 6) and our squad of capable reserves must also be given much credit.

We may all look forward and be assured that Weehawken High School will have another fine record next year. With Looney at goalie, Pete Schwalbach, Joe Puglisi and George Forte on the forward line, and Bob Duffy and John Kelly in the backfield, how can we miss?

BASEBALL

Going, going, gone . . .

A flash of spikes, the crack of bat on ball, and once again, baseball was upon us. Our team, which narrowly missed state and county honors last year, felt that this was the year!

Backstop Steve Durst, two-time All-State and All-County selection, who did everything behind the plate but call balls and strikes, received the slants of our veteran pitching staff. This trio from last year's team were seniors, John "The Arm" Picone and Stu Chasmar, and junior, Ed Becker. John, an All-State and All-County selection last year, was famed for his fast ball and sharp breaking curve while Stu was known for his fine control. Our infield was composed of Don Rickert, flashy fielding first baseman; Dick Arricale, a hard hitting competitor and All-State and All-County second baseman; smooth fielding "Hank" Gurski at short and "Flash" Gordon, .400 hitting All-Countyite at third base. Our outfield showed Sam Jodice, the man who gets on base; Don Auletto, rifle-armed All-Countyite and Bob Hilferty, who hits and fields with the best, in the starting lineup.

With a fine corps of reserves to back up this nucleus of veterans, we expected big things to show up in our teepee this year.
